PASSIVE VOICE and the protests: Rewrite the sentences, determine the tense

Rewrite each sentence in the passive voice. Keep the tense the same as in the original sentence. Include the agent using "by..." only when necessary. Remember: The object in the active sentence becomes the subject in the passive sentence, and the subject in the active sentence is the agent in the passive sentence, the preposition used is BY. First step: Identify the subject and the object in all sentences (use markers), step 2: Identify the tense. Then write.

1. Young activists organize large rallies in major European cities.

Passive: _____

2. High housing costs and rising inflation are frustrating Gen Z students.

Passive: _____

3. Italian student unions published a list of demands last week.

Passive: _____

4. French police deployed water cannons to disperse the crowd.

Passive: _____

5. Politicians have ignored public service funding for years.

Passive: _____

6. European governments must invest more money in higher education.

Passive: _____

7. Media outlets will cover the next global climate strike.

Passive: _____

8. Millions of social media users are sharing videos of the demonstrations online.

Passive: _____

9. Protesters are displaying posters with their demands in cities.

Passive: _____

10. Student groups started the housing campaign in Spain last month.

Passive: _____

11. Social media algorithms push viral protest videos to millions of feeds.

Passive: _____

12. Many European cities have introduced new regulations on short-term rentals.

Passive: _____

13. High rents will force many students out of major European capitals.

Passive: _____

14. Government officials were discussing the budget cuts during the march.

Passive: _____

15. Youth organizations can coordinate nationwide strikes through messaging apps.

Passive: _____